

Please do nothing to change or alter the NJ do not call law. The telephone in my home is for my convenience. I do not want companies, religious organization, political calls, or any other type of organization calling me. The phone was not installed for them to annoy me, but for me to use and to share the number with any one I wish to share it with. If they are so interested in calling me then they should pay a part of my bill